AFFILIATE

These all-inclusive programs work best for institutions who are looking to offer all GE locations and services. This is the most comprehensive level of service and is known as an Affiliate agreement. Fees are close to our publicized direct enroll costs but there is a discount for partner institutions.

CUSTOMIZED

Customized agreements typically involve faculty engagement and are designed for a cohort of students. Institutions determine if they are major specific or cross-disciplinary and can be faculty led or remotely supervised. Inclusions will vary with program requirements and program length.

ADD-ON

Adding on to existing study abroad program agreements works for institutions looking to supplement an existing international study abroad semester with a career focused component. The internship can be during the semester (part-time internship / study) or after the semester (full-time internship). Inclusions vary depending on university requirements.

SHORT-TERM

These programs are intended for a group or cohort with a minimum of 10 students and can be experiential in nature. Accompanied and taught by home university or by on-site faculty, our short-term programs include site visits to businesses and an intensive curriculum that can be credit-bearing. Programs are typically held in January or May.
