“I was impressed that the teacher was so aware of every sentence we were saying and making corrections in real time anytime needed.

Classes are not boring at all! The teacher guides you throughout the class and makes you interact with your classmates. You totally forget that you are at home alone and that makes you feel as you are really at any Enforex school in Spain or Latin America.

It is a plus that classes are live and that your questions are answered instantly. You really learn the language and don't lose track at any time.”
