

AIFS Customized Faculty Led Programs

Introduction of AIFS:

- Founded in 1964
- 1.5 million students abroad
- Pioneering Customized, Faculty-Led programs since 1980

Why should students study abroad?

- Less than 10% of US college students study abroad
- Shows college admissions and employers skills such as intercultural competence, initiative, understanding of diversity, problem solving, “thinking out of the box” ...
- Personal skills you gain: independence, creativity, tolerance, openness, a sense of humor, adaptability, flexibility, values, patience...

Customized Faculty Led Programs:

- Customized — A collaborative process to create a program you would like to run.
- Cost-efficient — Your institution retains tuition fees and students pay a program fee to AIFS. Student financial aid still applies, making study abroad an affordable option for more students.
- Credit Retention — Your institution provides the credit, so there is no issue of transfer.
- Internationalization — Professional development for Faculty.
- Simple — Once the program details have been agreed upon, AIFS will make all the on-site arrangements and help both faculty and students plan for their time abroad.
- $51 million of liability insurance with your institution named as co-insured.
