

Asset Protection Society

In various states, life insurance assets are considered bankruptcy-remote or judgment-proof. This can be a particularly important point when working with medical practices or other organizations such as law firms who may be subject to significant personal liability risk.

http://www.assetprotectionsociety.org/pdf_files/APS.50.State.Summary.pdf