

North American Faculty

Kathy Cookman, BS, CSTR, CAISS, EMT-P, FMN

Kathy has been involved in the trauma for over thirty-five years in various capacities from pre-hospital, emergency department patient care, trauma data management, performance improvement and injury prevention. She has a Bachelor of Science in Health Management, is the founder and past-president of the Alliance of Ohio Trauma Registrars (AOTR), the founder and past-chairman of the Trauma Registrar Council of the American Trauma Society (ATS), is the CEO of KJ Trauma Consulting, LLC an ICD-10-CM/PCS instructor, CEO of KJ & JC Enterprises, LLC, recently achieved Florida Master Naturalist through the University of Florida and holds membership in various organizations and associations including AAAM, AHIMA, AOTR, ATD, ATS, FWC, STSA, and STN. She has published articles and presented several papers on a variety of trauma-related topics.

Kathy has been AIS faculty since 2003 and is currently the International Technical Coordinator/AIS Course Director. She lives in Florida with her husband John and their two labradoodles (Bella and Tiller).

