

CYA

Study in Greece

Summer 2020

"This country is a world unto itself.
The only way to fully experience it is to walk in open-minded,
open-hearted, and ready for an adventure like no other"

Noa Gelb, University of Michigan

Archaeological Excavations
Art History
Cultural Heritage
Environment
Nutrition
Philosophy
Religion
Travel Writing and much more!

Athens • Thessaloniki
Santorini • Rhodes
Paros • Naxos • Poros
Nauplion • Crete
Delphi • Delos
Kos • Lesbos

Session I
May 25 - June 20, 2020

Excavating in the Aegean: The Despotiko Field School
[Paros, Antiparos] | $3,590

The Present Past: Re-imagining Greece Through Heritage
[Athens, Crete, Rhodes] | $4,290

Ancient Greek Medicine
[Athens, Kos] | $4,290

Education for Sustainable Development: Island Communities and Conservation (Service learning)
[Lesvos] | $4,290

Becoming a Traveler: Writing in Greece
[Athens, Poros, Nauplion] | $3,590

Philosophy Summer Seminar in Athens
[guest professor Jonathan Lear, University of Chicago] | $3,590

Session II
June 22 - July 18, 2020

The Geography of Faith: Paul and the Emergence of Christianity in Greece
[Athens, Corinth, Philippi, Thessaloniki] | $3,590

Political Economy in Historical Context: From Ancient Greece to Modern Greek Crises
[Athens, Delphi, Delos] | $3,590

When Egypt meets the Aegean: Interconnections in the Bronze Age Eastern Mediterranean
[Santorini, Crete, Athens] | $4,290

Illegal Antiquities
[Athens, Thessaloniki, Naxos, Crete] | $4,290

Classics Seminar: Greek Textual Criticism and Palaeography
[Athens] | $3,590

Partnership Course with DIS - Tasting Culture: Nordic and Mediterranean Food, Tradition, and Nutrition
[Athens, island of Naxos | Copenhagen, island of Samsø] | Fees: TBA