“Going to Dublin for an internship was a thought that remained imaginary for me even after I was accepted. I'm a first generation student from a low socio-economic family, so I constantly had the “This can't happen for me” thought. However, after multiple communicative transactions with the GE crew, I began to think that this adventure was going to happen.”

— Malik, Texas Tech University

“My time in Barcelona has easily been the best of my life. Global Experiences helps every single step of the way and resolved each issue that presented itself perfectly. Saskia and Inma are so kind hearted and diligent. I recommend Global Experiences to anyone planning on studying abroad, especially in Barcelona!!”

— Grace, University of Florida
Youth, Family, and Community Sciences major
