IDEAS

INCREASE AND DIVERSIFY EDUCATION ABROAD FOR US STUDENTS

The Capacity Building Program for U.S. Study Abroad, also known as IDEAS (Increase and Diversify Education Abroad for US Students) is a program of the U.S. Department of State Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs, USA Study Abroad branch.

Seeking to expand higher education institutions' capacity to grow and diversify study abroad programs for U.S. students

- Increase number of students studying abroad
- Diversify American student mobility
- Expand U.S. Study Abroad capacity

Grant Competition

- Approx. 21 grants of up to $35,000

IDEAS Program Initiatives

- Virtual and in-person, open to everyone

IDEAS GRANT COMPETITION

The IDEAS grant competition is looking for creative and innovative project ideas to increase and diversify study abroad programming. Examples of the types of projects that applicants may propose include, but are not limited to:

- Create a faculty-led study abroad program,
- Create a new study abroad position or office at the college or university,
- Support minority student participation in study abroad,
- Provide resources for students with disabilities to study abroad,
- Create programming for students in underrepresented majors,
- Form or further develop relationships with universities in a wide variety of international locations, and/or
- Create or enhance study abroad programs around theme areas such as cybersecurity, entrepreneurship, human rights, food security, STEAM, and public health.

Proposals may not include requests for funding to cover student scholarships, student travel, or travel to the United States for faculty and/or staff at higher education institutions overseas.

The FY20 IDEAS grant competition RFP will launch in later 2020/early 2021, pending U.S. Government funding. The FY19 RFP is available on our website for a sneak-peek of what that proposal process will likely look like.

THE IDEAS GRANT COMPETITION

ELIGIBILITY
