"I was impressed at how fast Laura Lee Rose could find the holes in my business marketing and give me concrete, actionable steps to make it 100 times more effective (and take less work!). She was able to take a complex system and break it down into clear activities that could be outsourced, delegated and managed much more easily. It feels like huge weight has been lifted off my shoulders. Rose Coaching has made my overwhelming workload seem more manageable and dare I say even enjoyable!"
