HOW DO WE TRANSFORM GOVERNMENT FOR THE FUTURE?

TRANSPARENCY IN PUBLIC PROCUREMENT IS CRITICAL. TIMELY, CLEAR ACCESS TO INFORMATION ASSISTS IN ENSURING FAIR AND EQUAL TREATMENT AND AFFECTS PUBLIC OPINION AND TRUST.

INSPIRE

Ensure Trust. Build Confidence.

A transparent and informative process encourages this through free and open exchange of information, enhanced knowledge, improved efficiency, and reducing potential corruption and waste, therefore providing the best value for constituents.

CREATE

Enhance Performance. Increase Productivity.

The manner in which government conducts itself in business transactions immediately affects public opinion and the public's trust.

Building updates and new construction are opportunities to build confidence, enhance performance and increase productivity. In this new and updated space, government planners are looking to:

- Address aging of the workforce for government employees through inclusive design that attracts and retains talent.
- Increase access to amenities in and around the workplace, including housing.
- Reduce the footprint per employee by improving flexibility in the workspace that allows people to move or work anywhere.
- Improve human health and wellbeing will lead to wide-scale adoption of programs such as WELL® Building and Fitwel®.

TRANSFORM

Excel in experience and enhance capability, while providing transparency and best value.
