About Us

RPRprep was created in 2002 by Marc Greenberg as a way to allow students from all over the country to prepare for the RPR exam in an effective manner. It was shortly followed by the CSRprep program, a way for students to study for 4-voice state exams. The daily lessons were developed with the assistance of successful court reporters, captioners and CART providers.

In addition, Marc Greenberg runs the successful SimplySteno online program, and created the court reporting documentary, For the Record, a selection at several top film festivals across the country.
