

SICILY AS A CLASSROOM

Syracuse Academy is a center for international education in Sicily, offering study abroad programs with a focus on Mediterranean Studies, ancient and contemporary.

The campus comprises historic buildings with state-of-the-art study facilities and lush botanical gardens; it is located in the heart of the city of Syracuse, next to the entrance to the Catacombs of St. John, one of the first sites of Christianity in the West, next to the world-renowned archaeological park and museum and at walking distance from the island of Ortigia.

ACADEMIC OFFERINGS:

- Direct Enrollment Summer and Semester programs
- Faculty Led or Customized programs
- Service Learning programs
- Internships

REQUEST INFO

 info@syracuseacademy.org

 www.syracuseacademy.org

 Piazzale San Marziano, 1
Syracuse, Sicily, Italy

Direct Enrollment Course Offerings

Mediterranean Studies

The crossroads of the Mediterranean: ancient history of Sicily

- integrated study tour to the Aeolian islands; Archaeological Field Work option

Myths and Religion of the Ancient Mediterranean

- integrated study tour to the Aeolian islands

The Foundations of Western Literature: Ancient Greek Drama

Migration across the Mediterranean

- integrated service learning component

Social and Economic History of Organized Crime

- integrated study tour to Palermo

Sociology of Intercultural Communication

- integrated service learning component

Mediterranean diet: food, culture and health

- integrated study tour to Malta

Italian studies

Italian culture and society through cinema

Intensive Italian language: beginners to advanced

Earth and Environmental Sciences

Volcanology: Mt. Etna and the Aeolians revealed

- integrated study tour to the Aeolian islands

Marine Sustainability in the Mediterranean

- integrated study tour to Malta

Syracuse Academy offers interdisciplinary, high-impact learning experiences, which allow undergraduate students to immerse themselves in the ideas and ideals of Mediterranean cultures, from antiquity to the present, and learn about their influence beyond the region's boundaries.

Each course is enriched by experiential learning components, including field work, service learning and integrated study tours across the Mediterranean.

SYRACUSE AS A HOME