About Us

SpeedBuilders was created in 2001 by Marc Greenberg as a way to allow students from all over the country to access high-quality speedbuilding dictations. In 2002, Marc opened the RPRprep program, and followed that up in 2005 with his SimplySteno online program for speedbuilding. All these programs were created with the assistance of successful court reporters, captioners and CART providers.

In addition, Marc Greenberg created the court reporting documentary, For the Record, a selection at several top film festivals across the country.
