Why Choose a Summer or Short-Term Program?

Hebrew University's Rothberg International School (RIS) offers stimulating courses for a culturally and socially diverse, hands-on experience you won't find anywhere else. Benefits include:

- Enriching classes, engaging workshops, unique activities, and local trips
- Wide array of courses to fit your interests and schedule
- Expert instruction from accomplished HebrewU and visiting faculty
- Ideal location in Jerusalem, a diverse and innovative city

Join us at HebrewU, one of the world's top 100 institutions and the highest-ranked university in Israel. overseas.huji.ac.il/about

Sample Summer Courses

- Emergence of the Modern State of Israel
- Conflict Resolution from Theory to Practice: Israel as a Case Study
- The Body in Jewish Thought
- Trauma and Resilience: Theory and Practice from the Israeli Experience
- Between Hamas and ISIS: Radical Islamic Movements in a Changing Middle East
- International Summer Program in Economics Education (ISEE)
- Transboundary Water Cooperation
- Archaeology of the New Testament

“Having access to world-class faculty at HebrewU really helped. It was one-on-one – something that you won't get at a large public school in the US.”

L. Eric Sundby, University of Oklahoma, International Summer Program in Economics Education (2016)

Summer Archaeological Field Schools

An exciting way to explore Israel and earn college credit, HebrewU sponsors archaeological excavations at several sites, such as Biblical Tel Hazor, Tel Abel Beth Maacah, and Tel Lachish.

Winter Session

Take advantage of the semester break with a short two- to three-week course and experience Israel at its greenest. Options include:

- Coexistence in the Middle East
- Conflict Resolution from Religious Traditions
- Israeli and International Law: Mishpatim Seminar
- Biblical Archaeology in Israel

Enjoy Life at The Hebrew University of Jerusalem

You'll study in beautiful Jerusalem, a center of high-tech entrepreneurship and rich culture. Our city offers historic sites, trendy shops and festivals, and restaurants with options for every taste and budget. You'll also benefit from our modern facilities and exceptional student support.

Student Services

We offer personalized support to make sure your time here is enjoyable, thought-provoking, and exciting. Our Office of Student Life staff, including specially selected multilingual Israeli students called madrachim, organize a wide variety of activities and events – such as weekend hikes, tours and day trips, and cultural events.

“For the last two summers, I have studied at RIS at Hebrew University, and I have had so much fun both times. The staff, professors, and other students are wonderful and contributed to both an enjoyable and intellectually stimulating summer.”

Brenna Bormann, Iowa State University, Summer Arabic Immersion and Archaeology of the New Testament (2016 and 2017)

Summer Sessions

Study alongside students from more than 90 countries in July or August, or combine courses from both sessions. Courses are taught in English at the undergraduate and graduate levels in all fields, with special focus in:

- Israel and Middle East Studies
- Language Studies in Hebrew and Arabic
- Religious Studies
- Social and Political Sciences
- Business and Legal Studies
- STEM
