

TRANSLATION TUNE-UP

WITH

Anissa

Just for court reporters, this new and innovative training program from LearnToCaption and Anissa Nierenberger, RPR, CRR, CRC, CRI, will enhance your writing ability, reduce your editing time and frustrations and give you the confidence of a realtime rock star!

The Translation Tune-Up training program is a simple, 4-step process.

Step One: Complete a quick, online writing review at www.LearnToCaption.com/training-and-education. Scroll to the bottom of this page and follow steps 1, 2, and 3.

Note: The writing review contains dense material. The purpose of this is to gather information about your specific writing challenges – please do not edit the file. Anissa can help only if she can see your TRUE writing ability.

Step Two: Listen and follow along with the recorded webinar called, “Terminate, Transcript, Turmoil.” (1.5 hours)

Step Three: Anissa will dictate a Quick Diagnostic Check for you to write at the end of the webinar. You will keep this Diagnostic file in your CAT software.

Step Four: Anissa will schedule and spend 30 minutes with you one-on-one after you complete the writing review, the webinar and Quick Diagnostic Check at the end of the recorded webinar. You’ll review the Diagnostic file together and Anissa will provide three things for you to work on and offer advice for your specific questions or concerns.

Write, Watch and Meet... The Realtime Rock Star within Awaits!

ABOUT ANISSA

25-Years of Captioning, the Creator of Dictionary Jumpstart and Founder of LearnToCaption.com

Anissa R. Nierenberger

Anissa discovered captioning when she was just 14 years old after spending a career day with a reporter in court. Determined to become a stenographer, she pursued her goal and within a year of graduation from court reporting school, she began captioning for TV stations across the United States and Canada.

In 2000, Anissa founded Dictionary Jumpstart, a realtime dictionary-building software that has helped hundreds of reporters improve their dictionaries and allowed them to explore other areas of reporting, including captioning and CART captioning.

As an author, Anissa has also published several articles as well as books that include Simple Syllables: 1,000 Entries to Better Realtime, and A Jump Back in Time: People, Places and Events in History and her newest book released in 2017, Simpler Syllables.

Anissa is a past President of MAPCR (Michigan Association of Professional Court Reporters) and has been a member of NCRA for over 20 years. She has presented seminars on realtime, captioning, dictionary building, and Dictionary Jumpstart to state and national associations, workshops, and schools across the country.
