

Navigating the Experiential Learning Triangle

Three Part Webinar Series

As experiential learning heads online, Virtual Internships is here to share our three years of online programming experience and best practices with universities, employers, and students. Our three part webinar series is meant to be short, accessible, and digestible information to best support all stakeholders as we transition to the future of work and remote internships.

Students

Universities

Employers

20 Minutes of Content

10 minutes of Discussion

1 PDF Guide as Takeaway

All PDF guides &
webinars will be uploaded for access
on your own time

How Universities can Vet
Third-Party Virtual Internship
Providers

How Employers can
Pivot to Support
Interns Remotely

How Students can Access and Succeed at a Virtual Internships

Co-Presenters:

Michael True, InTRUEintion
Rachael Criso,
Virtual Internships

Co-Presenters:

Ed Holroyd Pearce,
Virtual Internships
Richard Turrell, Handle Recruitment

Presenters:

Jillian Low, Virtual Internships

Webinar will explore the university and provider perspective as we seek to source the best opportunities and support for students.

Bringing in the employer perspective we discuss the challenges of how to support a virtual intern and how best to supervise and guide for success.

Bringing alumni voice to the table, we will unpack the student experience with virtual internships and discuss the best steps for success.

Register for April 28th HERE

Register for May 5th HERE

Register for May 12th HERE

All Webinars will begin at 11:30 AM EST