Program Features

- ✓ 12-15 hours per week of live, synchronous sessions with CET language instructors
- ✓ Asynchronous coursework and assignments in CET's Canvas platform
- ✓ Opportunities for cultural immersion through peer-to-peer interaction with language partners and virtual activities that place the student in the local culture
- ✓ For Students studying Arabic and Chinese: Optional non-credit virtual internship with an organization in Jordan or China

Students will earn 8 to 9 credits in the target language and receive a transcript from the University of Minnesota, CET's school of record.

In these unprecedented times, we are excited to offer this innovation to students whose plans were impacted by COVID-19. We are grateful to our program teams in the U.S. and abroad, especially our Academic Directors Zhu Li (China), Manal Yosef (Jordan), and Hiroko Hino (Japan), for their creativity and commitment to offering high quality language instruction in a new setting.
