

The Junior Year in Munich is the oldest continuously running study abroad program in Germany and a distinguished tradition at Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität München since 1953.

JYM is open to students in any major from all accredited colleges and universities in the US.

Admission Requirements

- juniors, seniors, second semester sophomores
- two years college German or equivalent level
- overall GPA 3.0
- letter of recommendation from German faculty
- home institution approval of class schedule

Year and Semester Programs

- Academic year or One semester
- German academic calendar:
- Academic year Sep-Jul
- First semester program Sep-Feb
- Second semester program Mar-Jul

Course Work Options

- LMU Munich courses
- JYM language instruction
- JYM program courses
- research projects

Spotlight Features

- JYM Green Germany
- JYM Italian Journey
- on-site JYM institute
- internships

Program Fee

- includes tuition, housing, insurance
- $14,000 per semester
- $60,000 in scholarships annually

Junior Year in Munich
Wayne State University
401 Manoogian Hall
Detroit MI 48202

JYM@wayne.edu
t. (313) 577-4605
www.jym.wayne.edu

Discover JYM!

